

THE SHANGHAI

EDITION

The Shanghai EDITION, is a unique and innovative hotel concept that is authentic, modern and personalized. It is of its place and of its time; unlike any other EDITION before it or to come after and a new approach to the hotel concept in Shanghai. This next generation urban luxury retreat is not merely a hotel, but an elegantly designed, intricately interlinked complex of structures, spaces, and settings that together offer a new kind of environment. An oasis of relaxed entertainment and comfort at the heart of one of the world's most populous cities, The Shanghai EDITION's style is naturally tailored to its guests' needs and desires all under one roof. It encompasses a radical, living elegance that resonates with all generations. Invisible design done with honesty and conviction.

The Shanghai EDITION is a unique combination of two separate towers featuring 145 guest rooms. Food and beverage outlets include Michelin-starred Chef Jason Atherton's all-day dining venue, an Izakaya-inspired Japanese restaurant, a Cantonese dining venue, 3 lounge bars and 2 rooftop bars. A multi-purpose event and working space is a modular arrangement that can be transformed from private meeting rooms into an expansive event space, totaling to over 485 square meters. The Shanghai EDITION embraces Schrager's vision of "simple sophistication" which translates into "understated luxury" showcased in its constant attention to details – in the design, service, food and quest for perfection.

The Shanghai EDITION is located at the northeast corner of Nanjing Road East and Henan Road in Puxi, West of Huangpu River on The Bund. Located at the core of the Bund Historical and Cultural Landscape Area, it is the origin of Shanghai's reputation as "a global architecture exposition". Once a British settlement, the Bund lies north of the old, walled city of Shanghai. Its colonial and heritage buildings, many of them in the Beaux Arts style, date from 1920 to 1936, as the Bund developed into a major financial centre of Asia.
